MR. B. S. PUTTASAMI wished to express the gratification of the House at the honour graciously conferred by His Highness the Maharaja on the Second and the Third Members of Council, the Chief Judge and the Huzur Secretary to His Highness the Maharaja, and congratulated the recipients on the titles received by them.

MR. H C. DASAPPA complimented the Second and the Third Members of Council on the earnestness and zeal with which they worked in the service of the State and said that it was such Ministers that brought credit to the State. He therefore associated himself with Mr. Puttasami in the sentiments expressed by him and begged leave to thank His Highness the Maharaja for appreciating the services of these officers in a tangible form in open Durbar. In regard to Mr. Justice Dorasami Iyer he said that his legal acumen was of a very high order and that it was quite fitting that His Highness should have bestowed on him the title of Rajadharma Pravina. Mr. Dasappa also eulogised the services rendered by Mr. Thumboo Chetty in the Palace and congratulated him on the distinction attained by him. He hoped that the Almighty would shower His choicest blessings and long life and prosperity on the officers thus honoured by His Highness the Maharaja.

MR. MAHOMED SAIT also gave expression to similar sentiments in Urdu and desired the Dewan to convey to His Highness the grateful thanks of the House for the appreciation of the services of the officers mentioned above.

MR. DODDAIYA thanked His Highness for appreciating the services of Messrs. Balasundaram Iyer and Matthan in particular who did a great deal for ameliorating the condition of the depressed classes.

The Kannada version of the Address was then read by Mr. K. H. Ramayya.
